

FANOS Ethiopia Tours

Your get way to visit Ethiopia

www.fanosethiopiatur.com
Addis Ababa
Ethiopia

Email: info@fanosethiopiatur.com fanostour@gmail.com
Mobile: + 251 913170579

Bale Mountains National Park

Bale mountains national park is 2,400 km² in area, covering a wide range of habitats and ranging in altitude from 1500 to 4377 metres (Tulu Demtu) the highest point in southern Ethiopia.

Temperatures on the plateau range from -7⁰c to 26⁰c depending on the season. The dry season is cold at night and hot during the day while the wet season has more moderate temperatures. The rainfall is high, averaging 1.500 mm, and usually falls between March and October, as well as other months.

Mountain nyala at Bale Mountains National Park

The Bale mountains area is the best – kept secret of Ethiopia, also it's an area of high altitude plateau that is broken by numerous spectacular volcanic plugs and peaks beautiful alpine lakes and rushing mountain streams that descend in to deep rocky gorges on their way to the lowlands below. As you ascend in to the mountains you will experience changes in the vegetation with altitude, from juniper forests to heather moor lands and alpine meadows, which at various times of year exhibit an abundance of colourful wild flowers.

Simien fox at Sanettie, Bale Mountains National Park

The Bale Mountains harbour unique and diverse fauna and flora. The area contains species that are Ethiopian endemics, but there are also species that are found only within the Bale Mountains themselves.

Blue-winged goose at Bale Mountains National Park

Bale mountains National park the largest area of afro-alpine habitat in the whole of the continent. It gives the visitor opportunities for unsurpassed mountain walking, horse trekking, scenic driving and the chances to view many of Ethiopia's endemic mammals; in particular the mountain Nyala and Semien Fox; and birds such as the thick-billed Raven, spotted Bale plover, Blue Winged Goose, Rouget's Rail etc. In general, to escape from people in to the peace, serenity and beauty of the mountains is one of the principal attractions of Bale.

FANOS Ethiopia Tours is very experienced about Bale Mountain National park and pleased to organize you any trips in the mountain, to make your holyday as pleasant as possible. We have a mountain walking, horse trekking, scenic driving, from one to twelve days.

FANOS Ethiopia Tours

Your get way to visit Ethiopia

Contact: Keb Mathews

Mobile: + 251 (0) 913170579

Email: info@fanosethiopatours.com or kebmthews@yahoo.com

Web: www.fanosethiopatours.com